Action Taken Report (ATR) based on Feedback Analysis: 2022 - 23

1. The co-education between girls and boys is essential. It needs to be encouraged by allowing both of them to sit in Library.

ATR: Library is a place for studying alone. To maintain peaceful environment grouping of students and collective discussions cannot be encouraged.

2. The students needs to be given autonomy in organising the events.

ATR: Students are always given preference to organise events and responsibilities are given to them to complete the task.

3. The inter-disciplinary combination of subjects be allowed. And inter-departmental activities be organised.

ATR: New Education Policy will bring about the new changes in the curriculum pattern and functioning of education system. College is already focusing on it.

4. College timing needs to be revised for students coming from long distances.

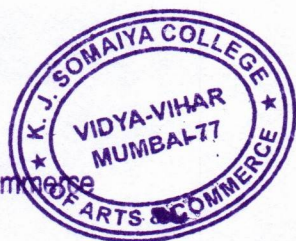

ATR: The time-table committee shall look into matter after the New Education Policy implementation takes place.

6. There are shortage of teachers in PG classes and lack of infrastructures (projector, laptop, AC etc) is major concern.

ATR: New recruitment of temporary teachers shall take place once the workload is finalised. The infrastructural changes shall take place only when additional grants are sanctioned by the UGC.
