FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Academic year 2016-2017 proved to be a very special year for the college in terms of its achievements. This year we have been awarded A Grade (with CGPA 3.33) by NAAC peer team in its third cycle of accreditation. We have also successfully completed 5 years of our Academic Autonomy. And listed One of the Best Colleges in India in the survey conducted by India Today magazine. Our efficient, dedicated, enthusiastic teaching and non-teaching staff, our talented and focused all-rounder students, large number of curricular and extra-curricular activities with the approach of holistic development of the students, our best infrastructure, continuous support from Somaiya management and Somaiya family, and beautiful lush green campus with our neighboring sister institutes- make us very special and important institute.

Somaiya Vidyavihar Campus currently is in the process of being private World Class University. Our college has contributed so much to the campus with our sheer dedication and efforts. We are proud to be part of this campus and always eager to shoulder responsibilities.

As Swami Vivekananda says, "Stand up, be bold, be strong. Take the whole responsibility on your shoulders, and know that you are the creator of your own destiny. All the strength and success you want is within yourself."

It is this belief and efforts which take us to new heights. And I am sure, trend will be continued even in the future.

Department of English

Academic and Student Development Activities [2016-17]

Expert Guest Lecture by Prof. Bernardo Ignacio Massoia, Faculty of Philosophy and Humanities, National University of Cordoba, Buneos Aires, Argentina and and Stage Performances (15th February, 2017)

The Department of English, KJSCAC organised a lecture by Prof. Bernardo Ignacio Massoia from the 14 of Philosophy and Humanities, National University of Cordoba, Buneos Aires, Argentina, and stage performances by students of literature who showed mentionworthy stage skills, communication and literary creativity on 15th February, 2017 in the Conference Room of the college. Prof. Bernardo Massoia has to his credit a degree in Modern literature along with Doctor of Letters, awarded by the Faculty of Philosophy and Humanities, National University of Cordoba, Argentina. He is currently holding three positions- that of Coordinator, Dept. of Latin American Studies, UNESCO Chair of Miguel Raspanti Institute, Haedo, Buenos Aires, Acting Professor of Hispanic Literature at National College of Buenos Aires and finally professor of Workshop Subject of Reading and Orality, Teaching Subject of Teaching Practices, Language and Literature.

Prof. Bernado Massoia is also the author of three books, 15 articles in specialized review journals, overseen 2 international Conferences, participated in over 20 national and international conferences, symposia and seminars. His academic achievements also include direction of two thesis degrees in Modern Literature. His scholarship has been recognized by 7 awards of honors and scholarships. After the formal introduction by Head, Dept. of English, Prof. Gaur and traditional welcome by the Principal, Dr. Sudha Vyas, and the stage was set for Prof. Massoia to take over.

An academician, well versed in three languages – English, Portuguese and French, Prof. Massoia was delighted to address the students of FY, SY and TY. Students listened in rapt attention to his account of the history of his land, Argentina and the impact of the environment and political influences on the socio-cultural landscape of Argentina. Having translated poetry (penned in Indian Literature in English) in Latin American Aborigin languages, Prof. Massoia also gave some important insight and discussed translation related aspects involving the trajectory of literature, from India to Argentina. It appeared so similar, yet was so distinct in its approach and diction. The students could identify the issues that Latin America faced through their training in other Humanities' subjects as Sociology and Political Science.

The precise talk by Prof. Massoia was followed by a showcase of literary talents by students of the college and especially by students of English Department. Three events to showcase speech and poetry skills were Declamation, stage enactment of world famous Soliloquies and recitation of self-composed Poetry. The Declamation Event had narrations of speeches by great personalities like Tagore and Arundati Roy. The soliloquies had Shakespeare on the forefront with Macbeth, Hamlet and 'As You Like It' as favorites. Poems that were self-composed were read out with appreciable élan by the students. Prof Massoia expressed appreciation and generously encouraged the participants. The event concluded with a vote of thanks and appreciation for Prof. Massoia and the participants by Prof. Meera Venkatesh.

Report on Partnership /Collaboration with St. Martin's University, 5000 Abbey Way, Lacey, Washington, USA

The Department of English has made serious efforts during later half of Academic Year 2016-17 to collaborate and/or develop partnership with other universities of the world. The department has made concrete efforts for new initiatives towards faculty-student exchange programmes and developments of new undergraduate certificate courses or programmes in association with St. Martin's University, 5000, Abbey Way, Lacey, Washington, USA.

The first meeting of the heads of pan-Somaiya institutes, department heads and other related authorities was held in the presence of Provost and facilitated by Dr. Satyendra Kumar Upadhyay, Director, International Relations, Somaiya Vidyavihar on 18th February, 2017. The delegation of St. Martin's University was headed by Ex-Provost and Professor of English, Dr. Duane H. Smith and two other heads from management and science faculties of St. Martin's University. The discussions at the meeting led to fruitful results and the Somaiya Management has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the delegates of the university in this regard paving way for further academic alliance towards harnessing and extending expertise / knowledge for better cutting-edge world class delivery of knowledge and expertise to the Somaiya student body.

The second meeting took place on 20th March, 2017 chaired by Vice-principal Dr. Mayuresh Muley and attended by Head, Department of English—Prof. Satyendra Gaur and the faculty members. Ex-Provost and Professor of English, Dr. Duane H. Smith represented St. Martin's University. Various suggestions extended by HOD, English and supported by department faculty included development of new programmes like 'World Classics in Litt.', 'Literature and Law' and certificate and degree courses in English language and Communication. Prof. Duane Smith stressed on further concrete steps taken towards exploring possibilities of collaboration and partnerships including our college faculty and the English faculty at Saint Martin's interaction leading to collaboration on teaching or research projects, and finding areas of mutual interest about literary studies and student learning discourses / seminars/ symposia etc. It was also mutually agreed between both parties to send each other next academic schedule, specialisation areas of faculties, and specific suggestions in writing about new initiatives.

English Athenaeum (2016-17)

The activities of the English Athenaeum for the academic year 2016-17 set off with the Inaugural Function followed by different contests to provide students opportunity to showcase their literary potential and involvement on 12th August 2016. The Conference Room of the college teemed with students who assembled in large numbers to listen to the Chief Guest and participate in the program. The Inaugural Ceremony was graced by the presence of Principal--Dr. Sudha Vyasa along with Chief-guest—Dr. Susmita Dey, Head, Department of English, V G Vaze College, Mulund, Mumbai—a renowned linguist and a seasoned person having an authority in literary interpretation and a blossoming critic. The gathering of students coming from both the faculties—Arts and Commerce, faculties from the department of English and other departments along with incumbent Head (Department of English)—Prof Satyendra Gaur looked forward for a scintillating literary Setting.

Principal, Dr. Sudha Vyas heartily welcomed the Chief Guest and greeted the audience. The Head of the English Department, Prof. Gaur introduced the Chief Guest and welcomed the audience.

Dr. Susmita Dey--an accomplished academician, experienced teacher and prolific speaker held the students' interest and attention with her talk on the topic “Joys of Reading Literature without the Fear of Misinterpretation”. She went on to highlight the fact that reading of any literary piece is an enjoyable experience if the reader puts in simple effort to understand the underlying structure of the discourse / content, by his / her own initiative. Her demonstration of this fact with the aid of Wordsworth's 'The Solitary Reaper' was an eye-opener for the audience. Her explanation put to rest many of the apprehensions that students of literature have, about interpreting literature, especially Poetry. The inaugural phase concluded with a vote of thanks.

The second segment of the Inauguration ceremony saw a host of contests / performances by students. The contests held were—Declamation, Stage Presentation of Soliloquies, Recitation of Self-Composed Poetry, Stand-Up Comedy and Music. The enthusiastic participation of many students highlighted their potential and interests. The students agreed to leave the Conference Room only with a promise from the Department faculty that more activities will be organised later in the year organised under the aegis of English Athenaeum.

Department of Banking & Insurance

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2016-17

After Gaining Experience from earlier academic Year 2015-16, the Department of Banking & Insurance has entered with enthusiasm and assurance of quality work in the Academic year 2016-17. The various activities undertaken by the department to promote learners inquisitiveness and gain practical knowledge were as under :

The term began with Career Fair attended & Represented on the Behalf of K.J.Somaiya College of Arts & Commerce by Mr. Milind Saraf – Department of Banking & Insurance, at M.K.School Complex, Factory Lane Borivali West on 4th & 5th June, 2016. Valuable guidance is given to the Students from western suburb regarding courses available at our esteemed institute.

On 5th August, 2016 Orientation Program has been organised for first year Banking & Insurance Students under the guidance of Dr. (smt) Sudha Vyas & guidance lecture by Shri Arvind Pandey – Chief Manager SBI on the topic "Preparation for Banking Examinations". He shared his experience and focus on the various methods and paths available for undergraduate learners to pursue career in Banking Sector. It enhanced learner's knowledge & practical aspect of job opportunities available in payment banks newly introduced by the government.

Aside from Business people and educators, the next most likely classification of person who might rely on regular powerpoint presentations are college students. Throughout the course of many degree courses, presentations, viva voices and other discussion points are key to achieving a good grade. In order to make the learners aware about the uses of PPT in their academics, they were asked to prepare PPT presentation on various topics of different subjects taught by different faculties. It helps them to boost their confidence, reduced the stage fear and improves leadership qualities. At third year BBI, guidance is given to the students for preparation of the Project on various topics related to Banks & Insurance.

It is the education that we get, helps us in acquiring information and knowledge either in a classroom or from the extracurricular and co-curricular activities. It makes me proud to announce that K.J.Somaiya college of arts & commerce-banking & Insurance department has achieved a great success in academics with 98.02% result at Third year BBI in the Second half of the academic year 2016-17. From Banking & Insurance Department, Miss. Simran Checker stood first at First Year BBI (Sem-I) with 'O' Grade, Miss. Archana Padhiyar stood first from Second year BBI (Sem-III) with 'O' Grade & Miss Pooja Mehta stood first from Third Year BBI (Sem-V) with 'A' Grade. The result is quite impressive and shows gradual upward movement in achievements of our students and college.

Each and every department has an Association to provide ample opportunities for our students to excel not only in academics but also in co-curricular and extra curricular activities. Like every year, this year also the association activities helped our students to exhibit their talents both inside and outside the campus. At the beginning of the Second term the cultural committee of the Department of Banking & Insurance works with the objective of developing the academic and cultural talents of the students, improving their capabilities to work as a team and raising their level of self confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers. This is the Second time, Department has organized Cultural Program in the Name of "Youngama" with sub-theme "FINSEC" (Financial Sector) on 14th & 15th Of December, 2016. The program is inaugurated by Dr. (Smt) Sudha Vyas. It includes various Talent Hunt, Insurance & Marketing event, Box Cricket, JAM(Just a Minute), Amane Samane a debate on topic related to financial sector. Number of students participated with enthusiasm and courage. winners of the competitions are awarded certificates , trophies & gift vouchers. Eminent persons from the field of Management & Arts were invited as judges for different event. Ms. Vartika Singh (Miss. India Runner-up), Mr. Arjun Thakur & Mr. Mandeep singh Bisla (choreographer of ABCD-2), Mr. Archie has shared their views & experiences with the students of FYBBI, SYBBI & TYBBI.

Learners from second year & Third year Banking & Insurance were taken for industrial visit at Amritsar, Chandigarh and Shimla on 17th December, 2016 in order to gain first hand information of industries. we were visited a E.G.Pharmaceutical Company, where students experienced the processing of Preparation of Medicinal tables and syrups, packaging process. They grab the knowledge from respective management trainees regarding product manufacturing, importance of stock statement for banks while sanctioning overdraft facility, collateral security, preparation of other bank & insurance related documentations.
