1.4 – Feedback Design

K J Somaiya college of Arts & Commerce strives hard to achieve excellence among students through its well planned, well designed & well executed curriculum. In order to ensure need based quality curriculum, this institution collects feedback on the curriculum every year from different stakeholders.

After collecting feedback from different stakeholders either in physical or online mode, response collected are analysed based on some predetermined parameters. Such analysed report is then presented before the staff members so that each department can take note of feedback analysis of the curriculum for their program & can accordingly make necessary improvement if needed. Every department revised their program syllabi to incorporate the changes suggested by different stakeholders. Such revised proposed syllabi is then presented before the Subject Board for the approval for the implementation of the curriculum.
